

Belief Concerting ALMIGHTY ALLAH

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Allah is One. He has no partners. His existence is essential. He always was and always will be in existence. With the exception of His Being, everything else will come to an end. Almighty Allah Alone is the Creator of the entire universe. He is the Master and the Sustainer. He alone is worthy of worship. He is free from all shortcomings and flaws. Almighty Allah is full of excellence. The entire creation is dependant upon Him and He is not dependant on anyone or anything. He is always existing and present. He is free from sleep and fatigue. He was not created by anyone. He is "Azali" and "Qadeem" (eternal). He does not have parents, wife or children. Almighty Allah is free from place, time, shape and form.

In this physical world, except for the Holy Prophet Muhammad (sallal laahu alaihi wasallam), no one else was blessed with the opportunity of seeing Almighty Allah and no other person will be given this opportunity. When the Muslims enter Jannah, then every true believer will be blessed with seeing Almighty Allah. However, it is possible for the believers, more prominently the Awliyah Allah to see Almighty Allah in their dream, but they will not be able to explain their seeing. The seeing of Almighty

Allah in a dream is proven from Imam-e-Azam Abu Hanifa (radi Allahu anhu). To give live and death, to cause illness and give its cure, to give sustenance and Taqdeer is all in the Power of Almighty Allah. We should at all times remember Allah

(make Zikrullah) and thank Him for His Mercy and Grace.
